The Lord is Looking For A Few Good Men
By Mike Riley

The United States Marine Corps has been using the slogan, “We’re looking for a few good men,” for well over two hundred years now. It began on March 20, 1779, when Captain William Jones advertised for a “few good men” to enlist in the Corps, thinking that would be all that was needed. It became a challenge or a dare to young men back then and continues to be a challenge today, to see if they qualify as one of the “few good men” the Marines are looking for.

- The Lord is also looking for a few good men — men who possess enough grit and determination to serve the Lord, allowing nothing to stop them (Acts 4:5-20; Acts 5:17-29).
- The Lord is looking for a few good men whose spiritual commitment is for a lifetime (1 Peter 2:21-24).
- The Lord is looking for a few good men who have spiritual vision — the kind that allows them to see endless possibilities (Hebrews 11:24-27).
- The Lord is looking for a few good men who are willing to be lead for His glory (Psalm 31:1-3).
- The Lord is looking for a few good men who have enough faith to lead others in righteousness (1 Timothy 4:12-16; 2 Timothy 2:1-2).
- The Lord is looking for a few good men who have the backbone to stand on the truths of God (Romans 1:16-17; Ephesians 6:17-20; Titus 1:7-9).
- The Lord is looking for a few good men who recognize the blessings that come from working together (Psalm 133:1; cf. Genesis 13:8).
- The Lord is looking for a few good men who can recognize the beauty of having a unified family (Psalm 128:1-6).
- The Lord is looking for a few good men who will teach their families His wisdom (Proverbs 4:1-13; cf. Genesis 18:16-19).

The Psalmist tells us in Psalm 14:2, that “The Lord looks down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there are any who understand, who seek God.”

In a world that consistently redefines moral values quicker than we can bat our eye, it is no small task in finding a few good men — men who will live godly lives of moral excellence (Philippians 4:8).

Brethren, the Lord is looking for a few good men. Do we qualify? (2 Corinthians 13:5).

MISSION STATEMENT
To Save Souls and to Keep the Saved Saved

CHURCH OFFICE HOURS
Monday-Friday 8:00am to 4:30pm

DID YOU KNOW THAT
1. The Bible speaks of just one church: Read Matt. 16:18; Eph. 1:22-23; 4:4; Col. 1:18; I Cor. 12: 12-27.
2. Denominational division is contrary to the teaching of the Bible? Read: I Cor. 1:10; Phil. 3:16
3. In order to become a Christian, one must:
   a) Hear the gospel - Rom. 10:17; Acts 15:7
   b) Believe in Christ - John 8:24; Heb. 11:6
   c) Repent of sins - Luke 13:3; Acts 17:30
   d) Confess faith in Christ - Matt. 10:32; Romans 10:9-10
   e) Be baptized for remission of sins - Acts 2:38
4. When one obeys Christ in being baptized:
   a) He gets into Christ - Gal. 3:27; I Cor. 12:13
   b) He is saved from his past sins - 1 Pet. 3:20-21; Mark 16:15-16

Why not obey the gospel of Christ!

Sunday A.M. & Wednesday P.M. Bible Study Topics
Adult Bible Class: James Adams & Angelo Haygood (Auditorium)—Finishing Strong In Our Personal Relationship With Christ: Galatians looks to guide new converted Christians to understand following Christ has little to do with outward ceremonies or obedience to Mosaic Law, but placing the gospel of Christ in our hearts and being justified by our faith and the life it should drive us to live.

New Convert Class: Ronnie Lofton (Room 12)—Why I am a member of the Church of Christ.

Women’s Wednesday Bible Class: Mary Bozeman & Deborah Houston (Auditorium)—This Means War: Understanding who our enemy is and weapons we need to win this spiritual battle.

Men’s Wednesday Bible Class: Ray Davis, Angelo Haygood & Jerry Houston (Fellowship Hall)—Living for God: How does knowing God make a difference in how we live our life, interact with others, react to social, political and moral issues. Understanding God and His will allows us to respond in a way that pleases God.

Bible Class Ages 0 to 18 in their regular classroom!
